RE: Final Championship Games in Hot Springs

We wish to congratulate you on your success thus far and wish you every success in this tournament. We hope you remember that your team represents not only your school and community, but also your conference and all school athletics in general. We are certain that you will not only be an outstanding athletic representative but also a model of good sportsmanship.

Packets for the teams advancing to the finals in Hot Springs are now available online at www.ahsaa.org; click on the Sports link on the left and then on Basketball, click on Basketball Tournament Coaches Packet. Included online is information concerning fans, cheerleaders, and drill/dance squads. We will depend on you to see that they receive this information.

There are also certain announcements that pertain to you and your players. Please read and become familiar with this information because it will make your tournament participation a more enjoyable experience and also save any unnecessary confusion or problems.

All 2009-2010 basketball teams advancing to the championship games in Hot Springs are requested to have a school administrator and the head coach at the AAA building, for a meeting on Sunday, March 7 at 2:00 p.m.
